

"No Greater Cause"

Promise's new album bursts forth with 10 new original songs by Bryan VanderHill.

Bryan's confident songwriting is smart enough to challenge you intellectually yet straightforward enough to immediately touch your soul. From the quietly introspective searching of Run to You and Lead Me On to the passionate proclamations of God's grace and goodness in The Best Is Yet to Come, we are reminded of God's presence in every aspect of our lives. The broad stylistic range of this album includes great solid rock, heart-rending ballad, praise and worship and even great, fun, thigh-slapping bluegrass - I'll Take All the Jesus I Can Get. While the arrangements are a testament to Promise's continued musical growth and Mike Tate's production skills, the lyrics are a testament to the moving of God's spirit through our lives.

CD's may be purchased for $10 by contacting Bryan at bvanderhill@aol.com or you may purchase the CD at the welcome center at Messiah after Sunday worship.

Listen to some clips -

Run to You {mp3}music/Run to You media clip{/mp3}

No Greater Cause {mp3}music/No Greater Cause media clip{/mp3}

Gather My Sheep {mp3}music/Gather My Sheep media clip{/mp3}

I Will Praise You Forever {mp3}music/I Will Praise You Forever media clip{/mp3}